THE EDWARDS GROUP

FM3
Methodology

- 600 telephone interviews of registered voters likely to participate in the November 2016 election
- Conducted June 14-20, 2016 via landline and cell phones
- Margin of sampling error +/-4.0% at the 95% confidence interval
- Due to rounding, some percentages do not add up to 100%
- Selected comparisons to October/November 2015 baseline survey and February/March 2016 track
Context for the Election
Residents are generally more optimistic about the local community than the State.

Q2. Generally speaking, would you say that things in ________ are generally headed in the right direction, or do you feel that things are pretty seriously off on the wrong track?
Interest in November’s election is remarkably high.

On a scale of one to ten, with one meaning “not at all interested” and ten meaning “extremely interested,” please tell me how interested you are in this year’s presidential election. Remember, you can use any number between one and ten.

1 (Not at All Interested) 5%
2 1%
3 3%
4 2%
5 (Neutral) 7%
6 3%
7 6%
8 11%
9 8%
10 (Extremely Interested) 53%
Don’t know/NA 1%

Mean Score 8.1
Q3. I am going to read you the titles and summary of several state and local measures that will appear on the ballot in the November election. Please tell me whether you think you would vote yes in favor of it or vote no to oppose it.

Voters support a variety of statewide and local measures likely to be on the ballot.

Three-quarters say they are “very likely” to get to the District’s measures on their ballot.

In addition to the ballot measures I asked you to vote on so far, there may be as many as ten additional statewide measures as well as elections for President, U.S. Senator, Congress, and state legislative offices, with the Twin Rivers Unified School District measure(s) appearing toward the end of your ballot.

Q6. Knowing this, are you very likely, somewhat likely, or not too likely to make it to the end of your ballot to vote on the local school (IN SFID ONLY: measures) (OUTSIDE SFID: measure)?

Conclusions
Conclusions

- As indicated by previous surveys in the District, voters are strongly and consistently supportive of two bond measures to upgrade local schools, with “yes” vote shares well above the 55% vote when information is provided. The measure carries with …
  - Men and women
  - Voters under 50 and over 50
  - Republicans, Democrats and independents
  - Voters in every Trustee District

- These findings are consistent with earlier surveys conducted in the District.

- Fully three-quarters of voters say they are “very likely” to work their way down the ballot to the Twin Rivers measures in November.

- Basic repairs and fire safety upgrades are voters’ top priorities for measure spending.
